FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chief Matt Doering reports that the results of the autopsies of the eight victims that were murdered on August 29, 2009 at the New Hope Plantation Mobile Home Park indicated that no one suffered any gunshot wounds.

The Glynn County Police Department will address the manner of death as it pertains to the attacks, but will not discuss the cause of death. The manner of death of each of the victims was blunt force trauma. At this time no other information will be released as to the type of weapon believe used during the attacks.

The investigation at this time does not indicate that there were others involved in this case and therefore no other suspects are being sought by the Glynn County Police Department at this time. This investigation is still very much ongoing and according to Chief Doering all information seems to indicate that the suspect, Guy Heinze, Jr., acted alone.

The public is asked to continue to contact the Glynn County Police Department with any information by calling either Silent Witness at 912-264-1333 or Det. Bill Daras at 912-554-7825.
